HOUSE BILL NO. 4343

Introduced by Representative WESLIE T. GATCHALIAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine Constitution provides that "The State shall protect and promote the right to health of the people and instill health consciousness among them".

Also, Art. XIII, Sec. 11, in particular states that "The State shall adopt an integrated and comprehensive approach to health development which shall endeavor to make essential goods, health and other social services available to all the people at affordable cost. There shall be priority for the needs of the under-privileged, sick, elderly, disabled, women, and children. The State shall endeavor to provide free medical care to paupers".

Accordingly, the government must ensure that specialty hospitals (level 3) should be widely distributed geographically across the country being an archipelagic country instead of its concentration in the National Capital Region.

It calls for the decentralization of hospital services, particularly that of the Philippine Lung Center whose establishment was aimed at providing the Filipino people the state-of-the-art specialized care for lung and other chest diseases.

It is worth noting that the National TB Control Program (NTP) surveillance data for the period 2003 to 2011 reveals that the Philippines is one of the highest tuberculosis (TB) burden countries in the world. Though significant progress has been achieved, there is still an urgent need to provide effective pulmonary care to patients and vulnerable groups such as the urban and rural poor particularly in the Visayas and Mindanao region.

Hospitals are among the primary social facilities that developing communities should have. By providing an arm of the Philippine Lung Center in Visayas and Mindanao, the bill hopes for constituents of the Visayas and Mindanao regions to feel the presence of the national government in their midst. Though there have been continuous efforts by the national government and state agencies in addressing lung-related maladies, there is still a handful of Filipino citizens who do not have the financial means to travel and consult with medical experts in Metro Manila. Thus, through this bill, we hope to address this wreaking problem of insufficient medical hospitals all over the Philippine archipelago.

The immediate passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
