

Sixteenth Congress
Republic of the Philippines
Second Regular Session

Introduced by Honorable Samuel D. Pagdilao

HOUSE BILL NO. 5025

EXPLANATORY NOTE

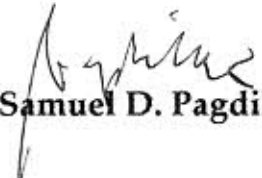

This measure aims to grant Philippine citizenship to Mr. He Yingyu Zeng, also known as Willy Ho, a national of the People's Republic of China.

Originally from Zhangquan Village, Jinjiang City, Fujian Province, along the South East coast of China, Mr. He first came to the Philippines when he was just fifteen years old. Around twenty (20) years have elapsed since and Mr. He has fallen deeply in love with our Country and its People. A Filipino businessman at heart, Mr. He is determined to stay here for good and to do his part in the service of the Filipino nation.

Mr. He has found his true home here in the Philippines and has manifested his intention to be one of our countrymen. His current residence is Unit 504 Sunshine Mansion, No. 1087 Aguilar Street, Binondo, Manila, where he seeks to continue his community-oriented activities, including but not limited to, his involvement in the different projects of Pugad Lawin sa Calamba, Lion's Club International, and the Taiwan Chamber of Commerce, as well as contributions to the Anti-Poverty Coordinating Council, Inc.

Having incorporated Filipino values and its way of life, Mr. He plans to extend his socio-economic and charitable activities in the Philippines. He also wants make his own contributions as a productive member of the Filipino-Chinese business community.

Considering the foregoing, granting Mr. He citizenship will serve to the benefit of the country. Therefore, immediate approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
