SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
Second Regular Session

House Bill No. 5637

Introduced by HON. IRWIN C. TIENG, HON. MARIANO MICHAEL M. VELARDE and HON. JOSE L. ATIENZA, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippines is one of the world's disaster-prone countries due to its geographical location. Recent natural calamities have brought enormous damage and devastation to the lives and property of our countrymen such as the super typhoon Yolanda.

The most vulnerable to the effect of these natural disasters are our young people who may experience trauma. However, our youth can be the very people who can make a real difference especially in time of disasters owing to their ability to bring about meaningful change in social behavior and attitudes.

This bill seeks to involve Filipino youth in the nation's disaster risk reduction management. This will include the membership of the National Youth Commission (NYC) Chairman in the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (NDRRMC). He will serve as an instrument in reaching out the concerns and proposals of the youth related to disaster prevention, promotion, education, rescue, rehabilitation and other activities.

It is high time that we encourage our youth to participate in the implementation of disaster risk reduction activities and involve them in decision making and planning. By educating and empowering our youth, they become aware of their responsibilities and potential to take an active part in the efforts to make our communities safer and more resilient to disasters.
