HOUSE BILL NO. 5838

Introduced by Representative WESLIE T. GATCHALIAN

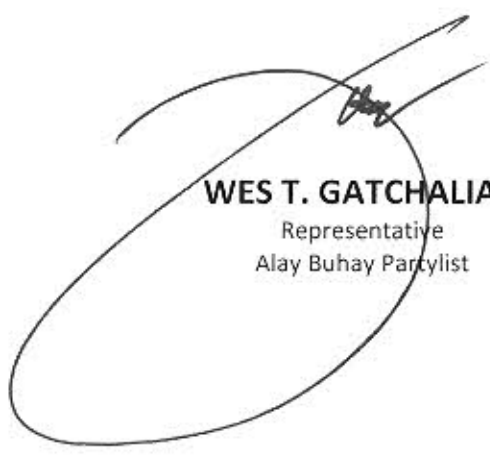

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to separate the Malanday High School Annex from Polo National High School – Malanday Annex and convert the high school annex into a separate high school to be known as Malanday National High School.

This school year 2015-2016, Polo National High School – Malanday Annex has become operational with 1029 students. Thru the efforts and funding of the Local Government Unit of Valenzuela and this representation, the said school was constructed complete with 12 classrooms, library and a covered court.

The opening of the said High School along MH Del Pilar St., Barangay Malanday, Valenzuela City is aimed at providing the residents of Brgy. Malanday and its nearby barangays an accessible option for education. In particular, the proposed Malanday National High School can also provide the secondary education to around five (5) nearby public elementary schools and four (4) private Schools. The proposed Malanday High School is also easily accessible by public transportation.

Foregoing considered, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
