HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
Third Regular Session

House Bill No. 6008

Introduced by Magdalo Party-List Representatives
Hon. Francisco Ashley L. Acedillo and Hon. Gary C. Alejano

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippines is situated along the typhoon belt and the so-called Ring of Fire, a region in the Pacific where many of the Earth's earthquakes and volcanic eruptions occur. Owing to our location, our country is found to be highly vulnerable to natural disasters.

The Hyogo Framework for action 2005-2015 promotes participatory disaster risk reduction (DRR). Participatory disaster risk reduction aims to integrate the views of multiple actors and stakeholders and involve people in the decisions that affect their lives. The youth are considered among the marginalized sectors of our society that is extremely vulnerable to disasters. Hence, their participation in disaster risk reduction is encouraged¹.

Youth, between the ages of 15 and 24, comprise one-fifth of the total population. There are three main rationales for greater voice and participation of the youth: First, the youth have the right to be nurtured, protected, and treated with respect, and, where appropriate, be consulted and involved; Second, it is recognized that the improvement of services for young people requires their views and interests to be well articulated and represented, and; Lastly, participation of young people can promote their personal development, strengthen their knowledge, practical skills, social values, and civic competencies, and prepare them for their roles as adult citizens².

The proposed measure aims to include and empower the Filipino youth in disaster risk reduction in the national level. The bills seeks to include the National Youth Commission (NYC) Chairman be included in the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (NDRRMC) to voice out the concerns and proposals of the Filipino youth on disasters.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this bill is earnestly requested.

HON. FRANCISCO ASHLEY L. ACEDILLO

HON. GARY C. ALEJANO
