6233
HOUSE BILL NO. _____

Introduced by Congressman Alfredo D. Vargas III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Republic Act No. 386, otherwise known as the Civil Code of the Philippines, defines succession as the 'mode of acquisition by virtue of which the property, rights and obligations to the extent of the value of the inheritance of a person are transmitted through his death to another or others either by his will or by operation of law.'¹ This statute also lists the modes of revoking wills and testamentary dispositions, one of which is the determination of a person's incapability of succeeding due to unworthiness.

Article 1032 of the Civil Code enumerates the instances that disqualify people to succeed due to unworthiness. It reads:

"The following are incapable of succeeding by reason of unworthiness:

- (1) Parents who have abandoned their children or induced their daughter to lead a corrupt or immoral life, or attempted against their virtue..."

This bill seeks to remove any gender biases from the criteria of succession disqualification. The proposed legislation amends Article 1032 of the Civil Code and includes parents who have induced their sons to lead a corrupt or immoral life, or attempted against their virtue in the list of people who are unworthy for hereditary and testamentary succession.

In view of the foregoing, passage of this measure is urged.
