HOUSE BILL NO. 6251

Introduced by Congressman Alfredo D. Vargas III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In the Social Justice and Human Rights clause of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, the persons with disability (PWD) sector was identified as one of the groups entitled to prioritization in health development. It reads:

The State shall adopt an integrated and comprehensive approach to health development which shall endeavor to make essential goods, health and other social services available to all the people at affordable cost. There shall be priority for the needs of the underprivileged, sick, elderly, disabled, women and children.

This constitutional provision is further enshrined in Republic Act (R.A.) No. 7277, otherwise known as the "Magna Carta for Persons with Disability", which secures the PWDs' rights to essential health services, including duties by the State to provide preventive measures and medical treatment.

The results of the 2010 Census of Population and Housing showed that there are 1,442,586 PWDs in the country, representing 1.53% of the Philippine population. And while the Philippines has become home to PWD heroes and leaders, more needs to be done to ensure that the PWDs' right to health is protected, promoted, and prioritized.

This bill seeks the mandatory enrollment of all PWDs in the National Health Insurance Program. As a consequence, all funds necessary in carrying out the implementation of this proposal shall be sourced from the sin tax collections, in accordance with the National Revenue Code, as amended by R.A. 10351.

This representation, including the bill's proponent from the Senate, Senator Ralph G. Recto, earnestly seeks the speedy passage of the bill.
