

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

Sixteenth Congress
Third Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 6303

Introduced by Honorable Rosenda Ann Ocampo

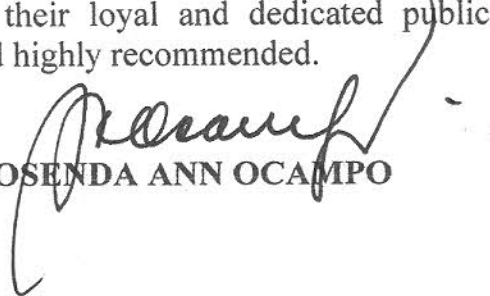

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to grant retirement gratuity benefits to elective barangay officials who have rendered at least three consecutive terms of service for the same position they were elected, amending for the purpose Republic Act No. 7160, also known as the "Local Government Code of 1991," as amended.

Section 393 (b) of the Local Government Code, as amended, provides for the benefits of barangay officials. The basic pay and benefits of elected barangay officials include a basic honorarium of One thousand pesos (P1,000.00) per month for the punong barangay and Six hundred pesos (P600.00) per month for the sangguniang barangay members. Additional benefits include Christmas bonus, insurance coverage, medical care, free tuition, civil service eligibility, preference in appointment and leave credits. However, it is quite unfortunate that the law does not provide retirement benefit to our barangay officials after rendering years of public service.

This bill therefore seeks to grant retirement gratuity pay for elective barangay officials. The proposed measure requires that the retiring barangay official is at least 60 years of age and has served for three consecutive terms. Being in the frontline of public service, it is of paramount consideration that these barangay officials be accorded retirement gratuity benefit.

In view of the foregoing, and in order to ensure that our elective barangay officials are compensated and rewarded for their loyal and dedicated public service, approval of this measure is strongly and highly recommended.

ROSENDA ANN OCAMPO
