House Bill No. 6336

Introduced by Honorable Sergio A. F. Apostol

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to convert the Burauen District Hospital in the Municipality of Burauen, Province of Leyte into a general hospital, correspondingly increasing its bed capacity to one hundred fifty (150) beds, to be known as the Burauen General Hospital.

At present, the Burauen District Hospital as administered by the Provincial Government cannot effectively serve the purpose for which it is intended as the Province of Leyte does not have sufficient funds to upgrade medical facilities and to hire licensed doctors and nurses to man the hospital. Emergency cases have to be attended by the nearest urban center traversing 55 or 65 kilometers to the Cities of Ormoc or Tacloban, unfortunately, some of the patients succumb to death along the way.

It is therefore expected that developing the service capabilities of the Burauen District Hospital by converting it to Burauen General Hospital will mean widened medical support services and improved health care system.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
