EXPLANATORY NOTE

The proposed House Bill entitled "An Act Converting the Kiangnan-Asipulo-Ambaguio Road in the Municipalities of Kiangnan and Asipulo, Province of Ifugao and Municipality of Ambaguio, Province of Nueva Vizcaya into a National Road and Appropriating Funds Therefore" is aimed at converting the Kiangnan-Asipulo-Ambaguio Provincial Road into a National Road which would consequently allow the provision of necessary funds for its development and maintenance.

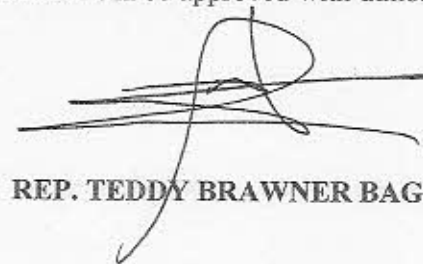

The Kiangnan-Asipulo-Ambaguio Provincial Road is a vital road that starts from Sitio Ibulao, Barangay Baguinge and traverses through the barangays of Duit, and Mappit in the Municipality of Kiangnan, Province of Ifugao. It continues to barangays Haliap, Amduntog, Antipolo, Pula, Cawayan, Camandag and Duli in the Municipality Asipulo, Province of Ifugao. It further extends and ends in the Municipality of Ambaguio, Province of Nueva Vizcaya.

The road is a significant road that connects a huge portion of the municipalities of Kiangnan and Asipulo in the province of Ifugao and Ambaguio in the province of Nueva Vizcaya. It is a road that provides great opportunities for trade and commerce between the provinces; an opening for industry, not only among the contiguous municipalities but also with other nearby municipalities and provinces.

The road connects Ambaguio, Asipulo, and Kiangnan to the adjacent municipality and Ifugao's capital- Lagawe. Lagawe serves as a profitable market for vegetable and fruit farmers from both Nueva Vizcaya and Ifugao. Not only that, it also allows farmers to connect to the lucrative vegetable trade that spans up to the whole Luzon.

The road as of the moment remains to be a provincial road that has continuously served as a hurdle to the economic progress of the Municipalities of Kiangnan, Asipulo and Ambaguio; a great stumbling block in the development in the lives of the people of Ifugao and Nueva Vizcaya. The bill seeks to solve this economic dormancy.

Given this reason it is most respectfully urged that this bill be approved with utmost urgency and significance.
