HOUSE BILL NO. 5168

Introduced by Representative Lucy Torres-Gomez

EXPLANATORY NOTE

According to the 1987 Philippine Constitution “The State shall give priority to education, xxx to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress, and promote total human liberation and development” (Sec. 17, Art. II). It further provides that “The State shall protect and promote the right of all citizens to quality education at all levels and shall take appropriate steps to make such education accessible to all (Sec. 1, Art. XIV). And it also mandates that “The State shall: (1) Establish, maintain, and support a complete, adequate, and integrated system of education relevant to the needs of the people and society (Sec. 2 [1], Art. XIV, all italics supplied).

The Ormoc City Division is composed of 83 elementary schools and 16 secondary schools. The 83 elementary schools serve a total of 31,286 pupils whereas the 16 secondary schools serve a total of 15,727 students. Given these two (2) ratios of schools and students, clearly there is now an acute lack secondary schools. As a result of this great disproportion, the Ormoc City National High School – the central secondary institution – is suffering from heavy congestion. The situation is no longer conducive to optimal learning. It is failing the adequacy test mentioned in the fundamental charter. The overpopulation is now depriving students of their right to access quality education.

It is for this reason that this measure calls for the establishment of a separate/new national high school in Barangay San Isidro, Ormoc City. The proposed new high school is not within the 1-2 kilometer radius from the nearest secondary school, hence, would be viable. Its feeder schools would include the San Isidro Elementary School (with 543 enrollees, including 80 Grade Six level pupils), the Bagong Buhay Elementary School (with 442 enrollees, including 78 graduating pupils), and the Dona

Feliza Mejia Elementary School (with 300 enrollees, including 40 candidate pupils for graduation).

The early approval of this bill therefore is earnestly requested.
