SEVENTEENTH CONGRESS
Second Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 6003

Introduced by Hon. Salvador B. Belar Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The town of Goa, in the province of Camarines Sur, is the undisputed commercial and educational center in Southern Camarines Sur.

It is the logical choice for the establishment of a Technical Skills and Development Authority (TESDA) Training Center that would serve to train the out-of-school youth, not just in Goa, but also in nearby town of Tigaon, Sangay, San Jose, Lagonoy, Presentacion, Garchitorena, Tinambac and Caramoan.

Of late, Southern Camarines Sur has captured the national migration due to its various tourist spots and emerging businesses.

This Act seeks to prepare many of the out-of-school youth for opportunities of employment and entrepreneurship brought about by the changed business and tourism landscape in the area providing the avenue for training much needed employment and business skills.
