House Bill No. 7086

Introduced by MAGDALO Party-List Representative
HON. GARY C. ALEJANO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Office of the Government Corporate Counsel (OGCC) was found on December 1, 1935 under the Department of Justice (DOJ), it was then known as the Government Counsel Division of the DOJ. It acts as the premier law office of government-owned and controlled corporations (GOCCs), their subsidiaries, other corporate offspring and government acquired asset corporations. As such, the OGCC safeguards the legal interest of all GOCCs, their subsidiaries, other corporate offspring and government acquired asset corporations.

This bill seeks to strengthen and further professionalize OGCC by re-defining, expanding, strengthening, and rationalizing its organization. This bill also seeks to provide an upgrade to the compensation as well as the benefits being received by the employees of the OGCC.

It is hoped that thru the passage of this bill, we would have a more effective and efficient OGCC, and that we would retain the services of the people in the OGCC, men and women who are committed to providing excellent and professional service for our country.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly sought.
