Seventeenth Congress
Third Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 8208

Introduced by HONORABLE MARK. O GO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article XV, Section 4 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution provides that "The family has the duty to care for its elderly members but the State may also do so through just programs of social security."

The enactment of Republic Act 10868 giving honor to Filipinos who have reached the age of one hundred years old whether residing in the Philippines or abroad, is a testament that the State accords due respect, appreciation and importance to our elderlies particularly those who reached the age of one hundred.

However, very few people reach the centenarian age and if ever they have reached it, they were not able to enjoy the privilege accorded to them by law due to health deterioration.

Statistics reveal that Filipinos have a life expectancy at birth of 69.4 years. Out of 100 Million population in our country, only 205 people have reached the age of 100 years old and above.

This bill seeks to amend the current law by advancing the grant of privileges to our elderlies upon reaching the ages of eight-five (85), ninety (90), ninety-five (95) and one hundred (100) respectively.

With this bill, our elderlies belonging to said ages, who are still in good health conditions, can enjoy these entitlements with their families.

Hence, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
