SEVENTEENTH CONGRESS
Third Regular Session

House Bill No. 9203

Introduced by Representative JOEL MAYO Z. ALMARIO

This bill seeks to postpone the May 11, 2020 Barangay and Sangguniang Kabataan (SK) Elections to the second Monday of May 2023 or a year after the 2022 National and Local Elections, and to schedule the succeeding Barangay and SK Elections on the second Monday of May 2026 and every three years thereafter.

In most communities, the May 14, 2018 Barangay and Sangguniang Kabataan Elections was highly divisive and polarizing. Constituents chose a candidate based on who they believed could provide them a better future - eventually seeding contempt for those who did not share the same opinions. Name-calling, broken friendships, and even fighting among family members became the norm as community members campaigned for their chosen leaders. This was further aggravated by the May 13, 2019 National and Local Elections with spite and antagonism intensifying based on political beliefs and perceived right or wrong leaders.

The rebuilding of community ties and relationships will only truly begin when the newly elected officials take their respective positions and start working with their constituents through their community leaders. Conducting the 2020 Barangay and SK elections merely a year after the 2019 National and Local Elections - when healing is precarious and superficial - will only further divide these communities.

For genuine reconciliation and continuity in growth and progress, the newly elected national and local officials can work better if allowed to work longer with incumbent barangay and SK officials rather than introducing another set of officials merely a year after taking office.

Postponing the barangay elections from 2020 to 2023 will negate the adverse impact of a divided community while enhancing the headway made by the incumbent SK, barangay, local and national officials.

Support for this bill is earnestly sought.
