HOUSE BILL NO. 8478

Introduced by HON. LUIS RAYMUND "LRAY" F. VILLAFUERTE, JR.

AN ACT ALLOWING LEGITIMATE CHILDREN TO BEAR THE SURNAME OF THE FATHER OR THE MOTHER, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBERED TWO-HUNDRED AND NINE (E.O. 209, AS AMENDED, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE FAMILY CODE OF THE PHILIPPINES, ARTICLE 174, PARAGRAPH 1

Executive Order No. 209, as amended, otherwise known as the Family Code of the Philippines, Article 174, paragraph 1, provides that "legitimate children shall have the right to bear the surname of the father and the mother." Article 364 of the New Civil Code, however, qualifies such provision by stating that between the two (2) surnames that of the father shall be principally used.

This bill seeks to amend the said law for the following reasons:

First, the Constitution mandates the State to ensure the fundamental equality before the law of women and men. The evident purpose of such mandate is to eliminate inequalities found in existing law. These "existing laws" pertain to the Family Code, among other laws, specifically Articles 174, paragraph 1. They also refer to Articles 370 to 372 of the Civil Code and Article 63 of the Family Code which deny a married woman the right to use her maiden name separately from that of the husband during the marriage and even in the case of legal separation.

The significance of such constitutional mandate would be dissipated if legitimate children, who are as much an extension of their mother as they are of their father, cannot use the surname of the mother. In the same vein, married women would remain second fiddle to their husband if this regime of male-parent-surname supremacy were to subsist.

Second, there are many instances of married women being the only child of their parents. Naturally, the latter as much as the former would want the family name continued and/or perpetuated.
