HOUSE BILL NO. 8695

Introduced by: Hon. Angelina "Helen" D.L. Tan, M.D.

AN ACT
ESTABLISHING THE RULES AND POLICIES ON THE DOMESTIC ADMINISTRATIVE ADOPTION PROCEEDING OF FILIPINO AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Adoption, under Republic Act No. 8552, otherwise known as the "Domestic Adoption Act of 1998", is a social-legal process providing a permanent family to a child whose parents have either voluntarily or involuntarily relinquished parental authority over the child.

The social and legal aspects of adoption entail tedious processes and high cost. Only when the petitioners were able to convince the court that they are qualified to adopt, and that the adoption would redound to the best interest of the adoptee will an adoption decree be issued and the adoptive parents could enjoy the effects/benefits of legal adoption.

On the average, only 177 cases were issued Adoption Decrees - of which only 60% were finalized within one to three years - among the children with a Certification Declaring a Child Legally Available for Adoption (CDCLAA) that were matched to local adoptive families and for which a Petition for Adoption in court was filed.

This motivated the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) to lobby for a law espousing Administrative Adoption following the Doctrine of Primary Jurisdiction. Hence, this bill seeks to take adoption into the realm of administrative proceeding in order to expedite the process, reduce the cost on the part of the petitioners and de-clog many court cases thus, benefitting the public in general and encourage more individuals or couples to adopt children.

One principle enunciated in this doctrine states that an administrative agency may provide an orderly procedure prescribed by law with respect to matters peculiarly within the competence of that agency. Adoption is a statutory mandate of the DSWD. Since time immemorial, rules and policies have been in place and the implementation have caused many adoptees to enjoy the fullness of life they have today. Reference may be made to printed successful adoption stories and even those shared during adoption activities.

The State even recognized the competence of the Department by virtue of RA 9253 or "An Act Requiring Certification of the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) to Declare A 'Child Legally Available for Adoption' as A Prerequisite for Adoption Proceedings" where the declaration of abandonment of a child which used to be a judicial proceeding was transferred to the Department.

The same view was adopted by the passage of RA 11222, otherwise known as the "Simulated Birth Rectification Act". The transfer of the process contemplated in the statutes is the exercise of competence being referred to and within the ambit of the doctrine.

Taking adoption into the realm of administrative proceeding will hasten the process, minimize the cost on the part of the petitioners and de-clog numerous court cases thus, benefitting the public in general and encourage more individuals or couples to adopt children.

Considering the above premises and for the best interest and welfare of the children awaiting permanent family, the immediate approval and passage of this bill into law is immediately sought.
