HOUSE BILL NO. 8812

Introduced by: HON. LORNA C. SILVERIO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

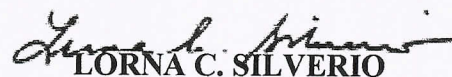

The State shall protect and promote the right to health of the people and instill awareness is expressly provided for under Article II, Section 15 of the 1987 Constitution.

Sanitarians performing as Public health workers are the ones executing the Department of Health programs and the overseer of such. They perform a very crucial role especially when the Covid-19 crisis beleaguered our country and the rest of the world. Being at the frontline of every health unit, they are in charge of working together to prevent the outbreak of any known disease, therefore sacrificing life and limb, a sacrifice every Sanitarian risks in their line of work.

It is provided for under Presidential Decree No. 856 or the Code of Sanitation of the Philippines, that Sanitarians are the backbone in maintaining the vital sanitary habits and practices of the community.

This bill seeks to upgrade the position of the sanitary inspectors to the next higher salary grade. By upgrading the salaries of the Sanitarians, they can at least be properly compensated to commensurate their huge responsibility in today's new normal to effectively implement quality health care to the public.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
