

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
Second Regular Session

House Bill No. 9592

INTRODUCED BY REP. MARLYN B. ALONTE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

According to the United Nations Population Fund, the Philippines today has the largest generation of young people in its history. Meanwhile, recent data from the Philippine Statistics Authority show that the youth population—or those aged 15 to 24—was 19.8 million as of January 2020.

Public service knows no gender or age. As such, it is important for us to continue providing leadership opportunities for young people so that they become more involved and committed in political processes. By engaging them in governance, these young leaders participate in important decision-making procedures and help catalyze important changes in systems.

The Sangguniang Kabataan is one such platform where these young people can hone their skills and potentials as a leader. Additional reforms will help create opportunities for more meaningful youth participation in nation-building.

Hence, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
