NINETEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 169

Introduced by Rep. Rodante D. Marcoleta and Rep. Caroline L. Tanchay

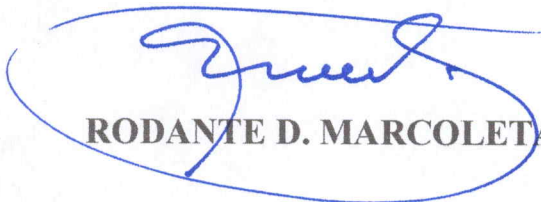

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to create the TESDA Skills and Accreditation Center in barangay Apulid, Municipality of Paniqui, in the province of Tarlac. To migrate it, in terms of its aims toward skills development of human resources, through the development of the Center, it will truly redound to the benefit of the youth in the area and the neighboring districts.

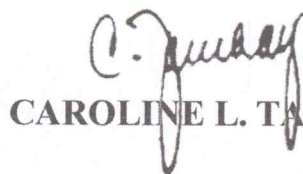

The availability of the training center shall provide the youth with the opportunity to empower themselves to be self-reliant and acquire new skills and techniques that enable them to earn a livelihood. When tapped, the latent talents of the young people shall be fully developed through the skills training, turning them into dynamic agents of positive change.

The bill therefore seeks to make TESDA replicable in barangay Apulid, in the municipality of Paniqui, Tarlac, which shall also serve 34 other barangays.

The urgent passage of this bill is then most prayed for.
