HOUSE BILL NO. 1050

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE ADRIAN MICHAEL A. AMATONG

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 9852 converted the Jose Rizal Memorial State College (JRMSC) in the City of Dapitan, Province of Zamboanga del Norte into a state university known as the Jose Rizal Memorial State University (JRMSU), mandated primarily to provide advanced education, higher technological, professional instruction, and training in arts and sciences, philosophy, literature, mass communication, teacher education, agriculture and forestry, fishery, engineering and architecture, maritime education, industrial and information technology, hotel and restaurant management, tourism, medicine, nursing and allied health sciences, criminology, geology, public administration, business and accountancy, law, nontraditional courses and other relevant fields of study.

While JRMSU has campuses in the Third District of Zamboanga del Norte, said campuses are in the southern part (Siocon and Sibuco Campuses) and in the north-eastern part (Tampilisan Campus) of the district. However, in the middle and western parts of the district, specifically in the Municipalities of Labason, Gotalac, Liloy, and Kalawit, there is no state college that provides free tertiary education to the students. Thus, the youth wishing to study in college for free are forced to enroll in the distant campuses of JRMSU and have to travel for two to three hours. Worse, some are discouraged from studying college altogether because of the money they have to shell out either in enrolling in the nearby private colleges or in travelling to the distant state colleges.

This bill therefore seeks to establish a regular campus of the JRMSU in the Municipality of Labason, Province of Zamboanga del Norte. In so doing, the policy of the State to protect and promote the rights of all students to quality education at all levels and to make such education accessible to all, as provided by R.A. No. 10931 or the Universal Access to Quality Tertiary Education Act, will be fulfilled.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
