

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

NINETEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 1136

Introduced by KABATAAN PARTY-LIST Rep. Raoul Dannel A. Manuel

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE INCLUSION IN THE CURRICULA OF SECONDARY AND TERTIARY EDUCATION OF THE LIFE, WORKS, AND IDEALS OF ANDRES BONIFACIO AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine Constitution provides that it is the duty of the State to inculcate in the youth patriotism and nationalism. Article XIV, Section 3(2) further mandates all educational institutions to "inculcate patriotism and nationalism, foster love of humanity, respect for human rights, appreciation of the role of national heroes in the historical development of the country, teach the rights and duties of citizenship, strengthen ethical and spiritual values, develop moral character and personal discipline, encourage critical and creative thinking, broaden scientific and technological knowledge, and promote vocational efficiency."

Andres Bonifacio is considered a national hero alongside Jose Rizal. He was a Filipino nationalist and revolutionary and has often been referred to as the father of the Philippine Revolution. He was one of the founders, and, later, the supreme leader of the Kataas-taasang Kagalang-galangang Katipunan ng mga Anak ng Bayan (KKK) or Katipunan, a movement which sought the independence of the Philippines from the Spanish colonial rule through armed revolution.

To honor him, we refile the bill which aims to reintroduce the life, works, and ideals of Andres Bonifacio to the youth through secondary and tertiary education curricula. Introducing a course on his life in high school and college will strengthen the values of nationalism and patriotism. Lessons on national independence, collective action, civic consciousness, and patriotism will be inculcated among the students and transform the youth into catalysts for the change needed for personal, community, and national development.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
