

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Batasan Hills, Quezon City

NINETEENTH (19TH) CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1253

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVE CARDEMA
(Duterte Youth Party-List)

EXPLANATION NOTE

During the Aquino Administration, on December 10, 1987, the government enacted Republic Act No. 6639 renaming the Manila International Airport (MIA) as the Ninoy Aquino International Airport (NAIA) in connection with an Anti-Marcos Leader, Ninoy Aquino, late husband of the then incumbent Philippine President, Corazon C. Aquino.

The name of the international gateway of the country should have not been politicized in the first place. Our nation's capital is named Manila, therefore our country's international gateway to the world must be known as the MANILA INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT as a sense of pride for our country's capital and for foreigners to easily locate our main gateway, when travelling to our country and across the world. In view of the foregoing, the passage of this measure is sought!
