AN ACT
PROVIDING FOR AN EARLY OPTIONAL RETIREMENT FOR DISABLED
PERSONS WORKING IN GOVERNMENT

EXPLANATORY NOTE

For the longest time, disabled persons have struggled to attain opportunities that are easily available to other members of the society. This includes working in an environment that not only recognizes their capabilities, but more so, enables them to attain self-actualization and overall satisfaction in their life. Despite certain limitations due to their disability, they have bravely continued to offer their service to the public through engaging in both local and national governmental work. It is the duty of the State to empower the disabled members of our society by acknowledging the service they have rendered despite their difficult circumstances. By allowing an early retirement option, they will be able to focus on maintaining their physical and mental health, which can be more challenging and laborious for disabled persons than others, as they become increasingly susceptible to illnesses that go along with ageing, in addition to their disability. Requiring disabled persons to continue working in their late ages will expose them to more dangerous circumstances than most.

The hard work and dedication of our countrymen who are suffering from disabilities must be rewarded. We have to give them the option to retire from government service early and give them the opportunity to live their lives however they wish, with the full support of our government to which they have faithfully served.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
