

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Constitution Hills, Quezon City

NINETEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1779

Introduced by REP. JOHNNY T. PIMENTEL

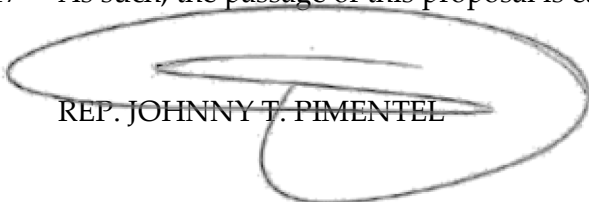

EXPLANATORY NOTE

1 As a thrust to cater for the special needs attendant to women and children in relation to crimes
2 against chastity, sexual harassment and other abuses, Republic Act 8551 of 1998 required the
3 establishment of the Women's Desk and Child Protection in all police stations. The same law
4 also mandated the recruitment quota for women to ten percent (10%). Twenty-one years
5 hence, the present circumstances of the Philippines is ripe for an increase of the recruitment
6 quota of female members of the uniformed personnel.

7
8 We are made to rethink this administrative reform in the wake of abuses by male officers
9 against women and children in their custody. It should be the State policy that only female
10 officers should have direct and immediate custody of women and children brought to the 11 police stations.

12
13 In other jurisdictions with strong child protection, whenever a minor is involved in an
14 incident, male officers are prohibited from taking custody of the child without the presence
15 of female officers, thereby preventing some abuses.

16
17 As such, the passage of this proposal is earnestly sought.

REP. JOHNNY T. PIMENTEL
