HOUSE BILL NO. 1963

Introduced by Representative Adrian Jay "AJ" C. Advincula

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to create additional members of the Sangguniang Panlungsod to form as the Second Legislative body of the City of Imus.

On October 22, 2009, RA 9727 was enacted into law that results to the inception of the third (3rd) legislative district, the Municipality of Imus in the Province of Cavite. Then, Imus was proclaimed a City on June 30, 2012 by virtue of RA 10161. Currently, the Imus City has only one (1) legislative body of Sangguniang Panlungsod. As the population starting to balloon and the progressive trend of development is eminent, not to mention that the City is likewise known for its accelerating point of trading, commercial and industrial activities, thus, the urgent need to pass this measure. With the approval of this proposed measure an additional legislative body will enable the City to be more responsive and proactive in catering the needs of its constituents and in furtherance of public service.

The creation of the additional legislative body in the City of Imus is in accordance with the mandate of Article VI Section 3 (3) of the 1987 Constitution which enunciates that each legislative district shall comprise, as far as practicable, contiguous, compact and adjacent territory to be known as the First and Second Legislative Body, the Sanguniang Panlungsod, of City of Imus.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is most earnestly sought.
