NINETEENTH CONGRESS
1st Regular Session

House Bill No. 2501

Introduced by Representative DANTE GARCIA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Don Mariano Marcos Memorial State University (DMMMSU) was created by virtue of Presidential Decree No. 1778, which was signed by President Ferdinand E. Marcos on January 15, 1981. It is the lone state university in La Union that offers quality and accessible world-class education to the residents of La Union and nearby provinces.

The DMMMSU College of Agriculture located in Barangay Nagtagaan, in the municipality of Rosario, in La Union is no longer conducive to the study of Agriculture. Scarcity of water is slowly hampering the learning of students who are enrolled in the college. Experiential learning in Agriculture is suffering. In the long run, students may no longer want to consider studying Agriculture in the college because it cannot provide the necessary experiential learning. This may worsen food security because there are not enough Agriculturists who will find solutions to increase food production in the Philippines.

This bill seeks to strengthen and transfer the College of Agriculture at the Don Mariano Marcos Memorial State University - South La Union Campus in Barangay Nagtagaan, Rosario, La Union to Barangay Alipang, Rosario, La Union. This shall provide an opportunity for the College of Agriculture to provide higher quality of education by allowing the college to have access to water essential for Agriculture, which is a scarce resource in Barangay Nagtagaan. This will allow the college to provide better instruction to students by giving them the necessary tools in the experiential study of agriculture. It will also allow the college to expand and offer more courses to students.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
