House Bill No. 3107

Introduced by Representative ROSANNA "RIA" V. VERGARA

The barangay, also known as the barrio during the Spanish era, is the smallest administrative unit in the Philippines. It is the basic template for grassroots democracy in action. The barangay captains and other barangay officials are thus our local community leaders who help in keeping the peace and in providing security in their locale, among others.

As far back as 20 June 1959, Republic Act 2370 or the Barrio Charter Act changed the council along with the Barrio Lieutenant from appointed positions to elected positions. In 1974, President Marcos issued Presidential Decree (PD) No. 557, declaring all barrios in the Philippines as barangays, as the basic political unit after its revival under PD No. 86. Landmark changes in the powers and responsibilities of the barangay system came about with the Local Government Code of 1991, which explicitly tagged the barangay as the basic political unit, "serving as "the primary planning and implementing unit of government policies, plans, programs, projects, and activities in the community, and as a forum wherein the collective views of the people may be expressed, crystallized and considered, and where disputes may be amicably settled".

Despite this key role in our country, however, our barangay officials are not considered members of the Government Service Insurance System (GSIS). This bill seeks to change this unreasonable state of affairs. It will thus augment the meager compensation and benefits enjoyed by barangay officials by including them in the coverage of the GSIS Law. The early adoption of this measure is thus earnestly requested.
