HOUSE BILL NO. 4302

Introduced by:

Honorable DAVID C. SUAREZ

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The effective, swift and judicious dispensation of justice is one of the benchmarks of political modernization. Without it, chaos and anarchic elements will rule the day and plunge society into a jungle of lawlessness. The presence of formal structures to ensure the application of the rule of law among the populace, on the other hand, will most certainly deter the commission of unlawful acts and subordinate everyone to abide by the legal covenants of society.

In a country like the Philippines, the wheel of justice is often being seen to be moving at snail-pace.

In this regard, the Court of Appeals has been instituting internal measures to alleviate this problem.

This proposed legislative measure seeks to add three additional divisions of the of the Court of Appeals, each with three members. These additional members and divisions will enable the Court of Appeals to handle its case load in a more efficient manner.

Hence, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
