AN ACT
GRANTING PHILIPPINE CITIZENSHIP TO WENYI CAI

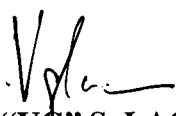

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Mr. Wenyi Cai is a Chinese Citizen from the Province of Hubei of China who has been in the Philippines for almost five (5) years. He was initially invited by friends and relatives to visit the Philippines as a tourist and during his stay, he was also invited to invest in a business ran by Filipinos and Filipino-Chinese Businessmen, to which he obliged and he was even offered a position with the company, but he turned it down since he was going to return to China.

However, while staying in China for a few months after returning from his vacation in the Philippines, Mr. Cai had an urge to return to the Philippines, as even though he only stayed for a short while, he already felt at home in our country. All of his friends and relatives were already living in the Philippines and being on Philippine soil gave him find purpose and felt as if he would be put to better use, specifically to provide quality yet affordable abode to Filipinos. He then chose to come back to the Philippines and accept the job offer at Oriental Union Property Inc. Through the years, he created strong bonds with the Filipino employees and Filipino-Chinese community here.

Mr. Cai has easily acquainted himself with Filipino values and traditions and now yearns of residing in the Philippines permanently. As he no longer wishes to reside anywhere else and has decided to become a citizen of the Philippines.

In view of Mr. Cai's wish to become a Filipino Citizen, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
