EXPLANATORY NOTE

Mr. Hu Jianguo is a person of good moral character. He believes in the principles underlying the Philippine Constitution. He has conducted himself in a proper and irreproachable manner during the entire period of his 12-year residence in the Philippines, in his relation with the constituted government, and with the community in which he is living. He has mingled socially with Filipinos and has evinced a sincere desire to embrace and learn the customs, traditions and ideals of the Filipinos. He is not defending or teaching the necessity or propriety of violence, or personal assault. He is not suffering from any mental alienation or incurable contagious disease. He has not been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude. It is Mr. Hu Jianguo's intention in good faith to become a citizen of the Philippines.

The above is undisputed.

While he was born in Hubei, China on November 23, 1978, Mr. Hu Jianguo really found "home" when he decided to move here in the Philippines in 2009. Fortunately, it was also here where he found his calling and earn a decent living. Having fallen in love with the beauty of our country and its people, Mr. Hu Jianguo relocated his entire family, including his wife and two children to the Philippines. He even invited his parents, in-laws, and other family members to visit and stay in the Philippines.

In his long residence in the Philippines, Mr. Hu Jianguo was able to establish meaningful and lasting personal relationships with Filipinos, be it his colleagues, employees, and staff. He is described as a man of compassion when it comes to his Filipino employees, family-oriented, kind, generous, and hard-working.

Over the past 12 years, Mr. Hu Jianguo has been a regular investor in real estate development. A business genius, Mr. Hu Jianguo was able to navigate amidst the COVID-19 pandemic and kept his company afloat while keeping all his employees and paying all their salaries and benefits unlike most of the businesses gravely affected by the economic consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic. Most importantly, he has always given back to the Philippine society and community through different methods including the following donations and contributions, among others:

Truly, Mr. Hu Jianguo has indeed imbibed the Filipino culture of malasakit.

Here comes the applicant praying that his efforts and loyalty to our flag and country be recognized. This humble representation stands beside him and opine that it is only rightful that we do so in recognition of all his substantial contributions to our society but more importantly, for being an inspiration and model visitor to the rest of foreign nationals currently residing in our country.

The undersigned sincerely believes and confirms that once granted Filipino citizenship, Mr. Hu Jianguo will be able to do more to help our constituents. More importantly, this humble representation is confident that Mr. Hu Jianguo will be an asset to our country. He is eligible and worthy of being conferred the honor of becoming our fellow countryman and be called by that sweet sweet name, a Filipino citizen.

For the information of my honorable colleagues, Mr. Hu Jianguo's application for the issuance of Filipino citizenship – House Bill No. 10566 was approved on third reading by the last Congress. Unfortunately, there was not enough time for the previous Congress to pass the said bill into a law.

In view of the foregoing, I seek the support of this august body for the immediate passage of this proposed legislation.
