House Bill No. 6924

Introduced by Representative JOEY SARTE SALCEDA

AN ACT
TO STRENGTHEN THE CHARTER OF THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL POLICE ACADEMY AS PROVIDED UNDER PRESIDENTIAL DECREE 1780, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine National Police Academy (PNPA) was created through Presidential Decree 1184 with the aim of professionalizing the members of the then Integrated National Police. Consequently, recognizing its critical role in public safety administration, Presidential Decree 1780, known as the Philippine National Police Academy Charter 1981, was enacted declaring as the premier police educational institution, and granting powers necessary to carry out its functions, under Philippine Constabulary - Integrated National Police (PC-INP).

Following the abolishment of PC-INP in 1991, the control and supervision of the PNPA was transferred to the Philippine Public Safety College (PPSC) pursuant to Republic Act Number 6975. Subsequently in 2019, the PNPA was transferred under the administrative control and supervision of the Office of the Chief, PNP.

Under the 1987 Constitution, the Philippine National Police shall be national in scope and civilian in character.

For 40 years, the Philippine National Police Academy has been carrying out its function to train and educate commissioned officers of Philippine National Police, Bureau of Fire and Bureau of Jail Management and Penology, with its motto, "To Learn Today, To Lead Tomorrow", anchoring its existence and powers from its Academic Charter – Presidential Decree 1780.

Pursuing the aspirations and visions of the late President Ferdinand E. Marcos Sr., it is imperative to revisit the PNPA Charter of 1981 to be responsive to the current challenges and demands of public safety and social defense. It is high time to push for much-needed organizational reform as well as the enhancement of its curriculum, training and education, infrastructure, and logistical capability toward the modernization of the Academy, making it at par with other police academies abroad.

With these functions, rights, and responsibilities of the Academy as part of its commitment to the national government to produce competent officers imbued with management leadership qualities and skills in public safety, social defense and internal security and with utmost respect to human rights, will be clearly defined and explained that it will be sufficient in itself as basis for asserting its right.

Emphasizing the mandates of the 1987 Constitution for the state to protect and promote the right of the all citizens to quality education, maintenance of peace and order, protection of life, liberty, property and, promotion the general welfare as essential for the enjoyment of the blessing of democracy, and shall give priority to education, science and technology, arts, culture and sports to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress and promote total human liberation and development, this proposed bill seeks to strengthen the existing academic charter of the PNPA to fulfill its mandate to produce the future leaders of the law enforcement bureau of the country.

To ensure the quality of training and education, the PNPA shall have the right to determine its policies, plans and programs, academic and otherwise, unhampered by external control, pressure or influence, as part of its constitutional guaranteed right to academic freedom. In long line of cases, the Supreme Court has defined academic freedom as the right of the institution to determine for itself, Who to Teach, What to Teach, What it shall be Taught and Who shall be admitted to Study.

With this, the functions, rights and responsibilities of the academy as part of its commitment to the national government, to produce competent officers imbued with management leadership qualities and skills in public safety, social defense, and internal security and with utmost respect to human rights, will be clearly defined and explained that it will be sufficient in itself as basis for asserting its right.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

(l) Investigate, upon complaint or motu proprio, violations of academic freedom, of the institution, the professor/instructor, of the cadets, or any act that will undermine the academic freedom or training standards of the academy.

SEC. 14. Corps of Professors and Instructors. – There shall be a Corps of Professors and instructors in the academy. The PNPA shall create, develop and implement a system of faculty, placement, promotion and development in view of educating, training and preparing the future police commissioned officers with the highest standard of personal integrity and professional competence.

Civilian professors shall be granted with respective academic ranks pursuant to the guidelines as may hereinafter promulgated by the Academic Council and approved by the Director. Professors/ Instructors who are members of the PNP, BFP, and BJMP, may be appointed to the Corps of Professors and Instructors upon their own application or upon the direction of the Director as recommended by the Dean of Academics or Commandant of Cadets.

The terms and conditions of work of civilian professors shall be governed by the rules as may hereinafter be promulgated by the Academic Council and approved by the Director.

SEC. 15. Cadet Admission. – The PNPA shall conduct the admission program and selection of cadets. The admission requirements and qualifications for admission to the Cadetship Program shall be determined by the Academic Council subject to the approval of the Director. The admission test of the PNPA Cadetship Program shall be stringent to maintain high standards of academic excellence.

The PNPA may coordinate with the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), Technical Education And Skills Development Authority (TESDA), Department of Education (DepEd), Department of National Defense (DND), and the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) in the use of the facilities and equipment of the said department in carrying out the selection and admission requirements of the PNPA.

SEC. 16. Cadetship Program. – PNPA Cadetship Program is a four-year residential scholarship course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Safety (BSPS), which degree shall be granted by the Academy through the Director upon the recommendation of the Academic Council. The successful candidates in the Cadetship Program shall be known as Cadets, and they shall be organized as the Cadet Corps of the Philippine National Police (CCPNP).

Cadets shall be considered government scholars and not government employees, Provided, that their period of cadetship will be considered as part of their time-in-grade in government service. Provided further, that they will be appointed in permanent status as Police Lieutenant or Inspectors, in police service.

The Cadetship Program shall be selective admission and selective retention.

In addition to Cadetship Program, the academy shall offer opportunities for short-term public safety, homeland security, and other relevant training courses or proficiency certification diplomas.

The academy shall conduct a periodic assessment of its curriculum and syllabus and shall likewise provide career development opportunities and continuing education to the members of the Corps of Professors. The academy shall conduct periodic evaluations of teaching strategies and techniques of the professors/ instructors, and shall prepare recommendations for further improvement. The assessment and evaluation of learning shall be outcome-based.
