HOUSE BILL NO. 6955

Introduced by Rep. Celso Gomera Regencia and Rep. Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to declare June 16 of every year as an official non-working holiday in my District, Iligan City.

This is in recognition of the efforts made by our Founding Fathers, the late Senator Tomas L. Cabili and the late Congressman Ali Dimaporo-who both forged the road for Christian and Muslim unity in Mindanao. As history will show it was the late Senator Tomas L. Cabili who made a move in Congress to declare Marawi (then known as Dansalan) as a City.

Correspondingly and out of great appreciation of that move the late Congressman Ali Dimaporo made the move in Congress to make the then Municipality of Iligan into a Chartered City by virtue of Republic Act 525 which was signed by President Elpidio Quirino on June 16, 1950.

Thus marked the great move for Muslim-Christian unity in my District-a very significant day indeed not only for all Iliganons but all Filipinos who value peace and unity under diversity. It is rightly to be observed as a significant day to be remembered.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is requested.
