Nineteenth Congress
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 7458

Introduced by Representative Rudys Caesar G. Fariñas I

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill provides a charter for the Department of Economics and Development Planning (DEDP) to replace the National Economics and Development Agency (NEDA). In addition, this measure mandates the DEDP as the agency is responsible for directing the government's planning and investment programming processes towards sustainable and inclusive economic growth, equitable distribution of opportunities, income, and wealth, and increased productivity.

Therefore, this new DEDP must formulate policies, plans, and programs for development, foster a culture of planning, ensure vertical and horizontal alignment and coherence, and oversee the country's public investment program.

Hence, this representation seeks the passage of this measure.

Nineteenth Congress
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 7458

Introduced by Representative Rudys Caesar G. Fariñas I

AN ACT
CREATING THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS AND DEVELOPMENT
PLANNING, DEFINING ITS FUNCTIONS, AND APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

CHAPTER 1

ARTICLE I

TITLE AND POLICY

SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Department of Economics and Development Planning Act”.

SEC. 2. Declaration of Policies and Principles. – The State shall adopt and implement continuing, integrated, and coordinated policies, plans, and programs towards equitable distribution of opportunities, income and wealth; ensure a sustained increase in the amount of goods and services produced by the nation for the benefit of the people; and expand productivity to raise the quality of life for all.

1 It is therefore vital that major programs and projects of different
2 government agencies must be properly reviewed by and coordinated by a national 3 government agency to ensure their consistency with established national and 4 subnational priorities; that the linkage between development planning,
5 programming and budgeting shall be of highest priority in identifying programs,
6 activities, and projects; and that the public and private sectors at the national 7 and subnational levels participate in the process of formulating, implementing,
8 monitoring, and evaluating policies, plans, and programs.

10 The State recognizes that, pursuant to the Section 9, Article XII of the 11 Constitution, Congress may establish an independent economic and planning
12 agency headed by the President of the Philippines, which shall, after 13 consultations with the appropriate public agencies, various private sector
14 groups, and local government units (LGUs), recommend priority legislative 15 measures to Congress.

24

25 ARTICLE III

26 POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF DEDP

27 I . Visioning and Plan Formulation

28

29 SEC. 15. Visioning. – The DEDP shall formulate a long-term vision,
30 hereinafter referred to as the Vision, which embodies the long-term aspirations
31 of all Filipinos. It shall be data-driven and evidence-based, encompassing all 32 dimensions of economic, social, and environmental development. The Vision
33 shall undergo a review every ten (10) years in consideration of changing 34 aspirations and preferences.
35

36 SEC. 16. Long-term Development Framework. – The DEDP shall 37 formulate the country's long-term development framework, hereinafter referred 38 to as the Framework. The Framework is a high-level and broad strategy spanning 39 twenty-five (25) years that shall guide the nation towards sustainable growth

1 and development and the attainment of the Vision. It shall serve as a tool to 2 coordinate, guide, and inform the preparation and consideration of future, more
3 detailed national and subnational development plans, national and subnational 4 public investment programs, and sectoral and inter-sectoral plans and 5 programs. It shall embody the development goals and milestones to serve as 6 basis for the overall direction of government policies, programs, and projects
7 across political administrations.

8 SEC. 17. *Physical Planning Framework. – The DEDP shall formulate 9 the National Framework for Physical Planning (NFPP), which shall provide 10 policies and principles to achieve efficient settlement, production, service 11 delivery systems, and sustainable use of land and other physical resources in 12 the country. At the subnational level, the DEDP Regional Offices, in consultation
13 with their respective RDCs, shall formulate the regional spatial and physical 14 framework (RSPF) which shall encompass an implementation period of twenty-15 five (25) years. The RSPF shall define the objectives and indicative uses of land 16 and the physical resources in the region.

17
18 The NFPP and RSPF shall serve as the main reference documents in the 19 preparation of the provincial development and physical framework plans and 20 land use plans of cities and municipalities.

21
22 The NFPP and RSPF shall undergo a review every ten (10) years in 23 consideration of physical changes, economic and demographic trends, as well as 24 climate projections.

25
26 SEC. 18. *Planning Call. – The DEDP shall issue a Planning Call to 27 government agencies and shall provide the standards and guidelines for 28 preparing the national and subnational development plans and public 29 investment programs. Within one (1) month from the approval of the Philippine 30 Development Plan by the Economics and Development Planning Council, 31 national government agencies shall submit to the DEDP their respective short-
32 term development plans and investment programs.

33
34 SEC. 19. *Philippine Development Plan and Regional Development
35 Plans. – The DEDP, in consultation with public agencies, civil society
36 organizations, non-government organizations, people’s organizations, academe, 37 private sector, and LGUs, shall formulate within six (6) months from the 38 assumption of office of the President of the Philippines a national economic and 39 development blueprint, known as the Philippine Development Plan, hereinafter
40 referred to as the PDP, which shall be anchored on the Framework. The PDP 41 shall establish a set of measurable goals and objectives with corresponding 42 strategies, in terms of policies, programs, and projects, that shall be the basis

1 for each political administration's pursuit of its economic and development
2 agenda. At the subnational level, this shall be known as the Regional 3 Development Plan, hereinafter referred to as the RDP, which shall be formulated
4 by the DEDP Regional Offices within six (6) months from the assumption of office
5 of the President of the Philippines, in consultation with public agencies, civil 6 society organizations, non-government organizations, people's organizations, the 7 academe, the private sector, and local government units. The RDP shall be 8 aligned with the PDP, defining the region's development direction.

10 The PDP and the RDPs shall undergo a midterm review and updating in 11 consideration of accomplishments, and emerging trends and developments.

12
13 SEC. 20. Coordination with Autonomous and Administrative 14 Regions. – The DEDP shall ensure effective coordination with autonomous and 15 administrative regions that have separate planning offices in the formulation of 16 the PDP and in the conduct of other relevant planning activities affecting said 17 regions.

18 19 II. Harmonization of Plans

20
21 SEC. 21. Harmonization of Plans. – The DEDP shall direct the 22 government's planning cycle to ensure the harmonization and coherence of 23 national, subnational, sectoral, and spatial plans and programs by prescribing 24 standards, guidelines, compliance, and accountability mechanisms. Moreover,
25 the DEDP shall review the short-term development plans submitted by the 26 agencies as stipulated in Section 18 of this Act in order to recommend 27 appropriate action.

28 29 III. Investment Programming

30
31 SEC. 22. Investment Programming. – The DEDP shall direct and 32 oversee the government's investment programming process to ensure that the 33 plans are translated into programs and projects by prescribing standards and 34 guidelines, as well as compliance and accountability mechanisms, especially 35 considering the results of relevant evaluation studies, and their conformity to 36 the NFPP and RSPF which are the main reference references for land use and 37 physical framework plans as mandated under Section 17 of this Act.

38 SEC. 23. Public Investment Program and Regional Development
39 Investment Program. – The DEDP, in consultation with public agencies, shall 40 formulate the Public Investment Program, hereinafter referred to as the PIP,

1 which shall identify the priority programs, activities, and projects (PAPs) that are
2 responsive to the sectoral goals and outcomes of the PDP, for implementation
3 through national government funds or the General Appropriations Act (GAA),
4 Official Development Assistance (ODA), Public-Private Partnership (PPP), joint 5 ventures (~~JV~~), and other viable implementation and financing options. At the 6 subnational level, this shall be known as the Regional Development Investment
7 Program, hereinafter referred to as the RDIP, which shall be formulated by the 8 DROs in consultation with their respective RDCs.

10 IV. Linkage of Planning with Budgeting

11
12 SEC. 24. *Linkage of Planning with Budgeting. – The DEDP shall 13 recommend to the Development Budget Coordination Committee (DBCC) the 14 priorities for budget expenditure policies including sectoral and regional 15 allocations. Together with the DBM and other relevant government oversight
16 agencies, the DEDP shall ensure that the annual and multi-year appropriations
17 for programs and projects are aligned with the development strategies in the PDP
18 and RDPs.

19 20 V. Policy Advisory

21
22 SEC. 25. *Policy Advisory. – The DEDP shall undertake policy reviews 23 to provide objective, evidence-based, critical analyses of development issues and 24 policy alternatives and report findings and recommendations to the President of 25 the Philippines, the Congress of the Philippines, or the Economics and 26 Development Planning Council, created under Sec. 43 of this Act, as appropriate.

27
28 VI. Project Appraisal

29
30 SEC. 26. *Project appraisal. – The DEDP shall appraise proposed 31 programs and projects as provided by existing laws and regulations, and as may 32 be determined by the Economics and Development Planning Council in terms of 33 economic and societal benefits and viability. The DEDP shall adopt and 34 implement appropriate evaluation measures and criteria to determine the 35 viability of programs and projects. Only programs and projects that have been 36 found viable by the DEDP shall be endorsed to the Economics and Development
37 Planning Council through the appropriate inter-agency committee.

38
39 VII. Monitoring and Assessment

SEC. 27. Monitoring and Assessment. – The DEDP shall monitor and assess the progress of implementation of priority national and subnational programs and projects, as defined by the Economics and Development Planning Council, with respect to physical and financial performance, among others. The DEDP shall also identify implementation bottlenecks and facilitate resolution of problems. The Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) shall complement the monitoring, reporting, and facilitation of programs and projects at the sub-regional level. Moreover, the DEDP shall determine the continued viability of national programs or projects and recommend corresponding measures to the Economics and Development Planning Council.

SEC. 28. Philippine Development Report and Regional Development Reports. – The DEDP and its Regional Offices shall formulate annually the Philippine Development Report (PDR) and Regional Development Reports (RDRs). The PDR and RDRs shall serve as monitoring reports on the implementation of the PDP and RDPs, respectively. The results from such monitoring activities shall serve as inputs to policy and decision makers in the formulation of policies, budgeting, and implementation of programs and projects. To this end, the PDRs and RDRs shall contain the latest data and information pertaining to the goals, policies, and strategies, as specified in the PDP.

SEC. 29. Official Development Assistance Portfolio Review. – The DEDP shall review the status of all projects funded by ODA pursuant to Republic Act No. 8182, otherwise known as the “Official Development Assistance Act of 1996”.

VIII . Evaluation

SEC. 30. Evaluation. – The DEDP shall formulate a medium-term national evaluation agenda to assess the impact and outcomes of programs and projects. It shall oversee the conduct of evaluation studies consistent with the agenda, in support of good governance, transparency, accountability, and evidence-based decision-making.

IX. Independent Review

SEC. 31. Independent Review. - In the course of its monitoring and assessment of programs and projects, the DEDP may independently review and evaluate facts and circumstances as a means of determining whether sufficient cause exists to initiate appropriate legal action, in which case, a report shall be prepared and referred to the proper agency or body.

X. Development Research

SEC. 32. Research. – The DEDP shall conduct research, special surveys, and related studies as inputs to the formulation of policies and plans, and the design of programs and projects. The DEDP shall establish a Development Research Program so that broad policies, plans, and relevant programs can be formulated based on a sound analysis of data and evidence.

XI. Knowledge Management and Communication

SEC. 33. Knowledge Management and Communication. – The DEDP shall develop and maintain knowledge management systems, applications, and tools for timely and effective dissemination, accessibility, and comprehensibility of information and knowledge on economics and development planning issues. It shall develop and sustain communication and stakeholder engagement platforms towards well-informed and cost-effective public and private sector participation in the development process.

XII. Transparency and Accountability Reports

SEC. 34. Transparency and Accountability Reports. – Within the first quarter of every year, the DEDP shall submit a report to the President of the Philippines, Cabinet, Congress, and the Filipino people through the mass media, on the economic performance of the country. The report shall include the status and the directions of the fiscal and monetary policies of the government in coordination with the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas, the Department of Finance (DOF) and the DBM; macroeconomic outlook and labor market prospects; and other relevant information that may be requested, for purposes of transparency and accountability.

SEC. 35. Inter-generational Report. – The DEDP shall submit an Inter-Generational Report (IGR) to the President of the Philippines and Congress every six (6) years. The IGR shall be an assessment of the long-term sustainability of existing government policies over the next 25 years, taking into account projected demographic, environmental and other changes.

XIII. Capacity Building of Development Planners

1 SEC. 36. Capacity Building of Development Planners. – The DEDP, in 2 coordination with appropriate institutions including state universities and 3 colleges, subject to accreditation procedures, shall establish and implement a 4 capacity building program on development planning for national and local 5 planners to build, strengthen, and continually update the technical 6 competencies of development planners in the country. The capacity building
7 program shall also serve as a platform for wider dissemination of the country’s 8 vision, development plans, policies, and programs.

10 SEC. 37. Technical Assistance to Development Planners. – The DEDP
11 shall provide technical assistance to the LGUs on how to localize national 12 development strategies, particularly in planning and investment programming
13 to ensure alignment of local development plans and strategies with the PDP and 14 RDP.

15 16 XIV. Economic and Financial Literacy

17 SEC. 38. Economic and Financial Literacy. – The DEDP shall lead the 18 participation of government agencies and instrumentalities, including LGUs,
19 government-owned and controlled corporations (GOCCs) and educational 20 institutions, in the conduct of knowledge-expanding activities on economic and 21 financial literacy, pursuant to Republic Act No. 10922, otherwise known as the 22 “Economic and Financial Literacy Act”.

23 24 25 XV. Innovation and Futures Thinking

26
27 SEC. 39. Innovation. – The DEDP shall provide secretariat support, and 28 prepare and recommend priorities, policies, programs, projects, strategies, and 29 other outputs to the National Innovation Council to realize the country’s 30 strategic vision for innovation, pursuant to Republic Act No. 11293, or the 31 “Philippine Innovation Act”.

32
33 SEC. 40. Futures Thinking. – The DEDP shall continually undertake 34 scenario planning exercises, anticipating future trends or discontinuities, and 35 recommend responsive measures to the President of the Philippines and the 36 Congress, as appropriate.

37
38 SEC. 41. Foresight Tools. – The DEDP shall employ or develop, as 39 circumstances warrant, foresight tools to deal with emergent trends, understand

1 plausible future states, craft corresponding strategies, and monitor relevant
2 indicators of anticipated futures.

4 XVI. Technical and Secretariat Support

6 SEC. 42. *Technical and Secretariat Support. – The DEDP shall serve 7 as the Secretariat to the Economics and Development Planning Council and its 8 Committees, the RDCs, and the National Innovation Council. In this capacity, 9 the DEDP shall ensure that all policies, programs, and projects approved by 10 these bodies are strictly aligned with the PDP and RDP. As secretariat support, 11 it shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- 12
13 (a) Provide technical and administrative support;
14
15 (b) Determine and prepare the agenda;
16
17 (c) Prepare the minutes of the meeting;
18
19 (d) Manage and maintain the official records; and 20
21 (e) Perform other duties as may be assigned by the said bodies.

22 Furthermore, the DEDP shall provide technical inputs, review, appraisal,

18

19 (f) Governor of the BSP, as a resource institution.
20

21 The President of the Philippines may, however, revise the membership of 22 the Council whenever the same is deemed necessary for the effective
23 performance of the Council's function.
24

25 All members of the Council, except the Governor of the BSP, are voting 26 members. The presence of a majority of all members of the Council shall 27 constitute a quorum. The Council may request inputs from the private sector.
28

29 SEC. 45. *Powers and Functions of the Council. – The Council shall 30 have the following powers and functions:

31
32 (a) Direct the formulation and implementation of policies, plans, and 33 programs that would promote economic development and address
34 development concerns of national importance;
35

36 (b) Approve the PDP, PIP, and their respective midterm updates;
37

- (c) Approve the level of annual government expenditures, as well as projections, forecast, resource requirement, and the ceiling of government spending for social and economic development, national defense, government debt service, and the proper allocation of expenditures for each development activity between current operating expenditures and capital outlay;
- (d) Approve the level of expenditure program of national government agencies by region, in accordance with the approved RDPs and RDIPs;
- (e) Define cost threshold and other criteria for priority programs and projects that shall require Council approval, unless already provided by existing laws, rules and regulations;
- (f) Approve projects, programs, and plans, as endorsed by the DEDP, as required under existing laws, orders, rules and regulations, and other issuances;
- (g) Initiate the formulation of proposals for the enactment of laws that may be necessary for the integration and implementation of economic and development policies, plans and programs or any of their component parts;
- (h) Issue rules and regulations necessary for the effective discharge of the powers and functions vested on the Council; and
- (i) Direct the reorganization, or establishment of Committees of the Council, including the modification of their respective membership, structures, powers, and functions.

SEC. 46. Meetings. – The Council shall meet at least once every quarter. A special meeting of the Council may be convened by the President of the Philippines to address urgent concerns, or emergencies, such as natural disasters, calamities, or other extraordinary circumstances which would affect the economy or and national development.

The DEDP shall maintain and preserve a complete record of the proceedings and deliberations of the Council, including the recordings and transcripts thereof, either in their original form, or in any secured format made available by existing technology, such as digital formatting.

SEC. 47. Full Disclosure Rule. – In addition to the requirements of Republic Act No. 6713, otherwise known as the “Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees”, any member of the Economics

1 and Development Council with personal and pecuniary interest in any matter in 2 the agenda of the Council shall disclose the interest to the Economics and 3 Development Council and shall withdraw from the meeting when the matter is 4 taken up. The decision taken on the matter shall be made public. The minutes
5 shall reflect the disclosure made and the retirement of the member concerned
6 from the meeting.

7 8 9 ARTICLE II

10 COMMITTEES OF THE COUNCIL

11
12 SEC. 48. *Committees of the Economics and Development Council. –
13 The Economics and Development Council shall have committees that shall act
14 as its primary advisory bodies.

15
16 These Committees shall be the main coordinating mechanism that 17 ensures that the policy environment is conducive to the promotion of rapid,
18 inclusive, and sustained economic growth that raises the quality of life for all.

20 The President of the Philippines shall designate the respective 21 Chairpersons of the Committees. The DEDP shall serve as the Secretariat for all 22 Committees, unless otherwise provided in this Act. The Council may create new 23 committees, modify or abolish existing ones with respect to their structures,
24 composition, powers, and functions. It may also create sub-committees, 25 whenever appropriate, for the purpose of dispensing with any of their respective 26 functions. To avoid duplication and ensure policy coherence, no other inter-
27 agency body with the same or similar mandates to the Council's Committees 28 shall be created.

29
30 Members of Congress may, upon invitation of the President of the 31 Philippines, serve as resource persons in any of the Committees.

TRANSITORY AND OTHER MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 59. Transitory Provision. – The National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) is hereby abolished. The powers and functions, applicable funds and appropriations, records, files, equipment, facilities, supplies, property, and personnel of the NEDA are hereby transferred to and absorbed by the DEDP. All current officials and employees of the NEDA shall be retained under the DEDP. Any reference to the NEDA, or to the Director General of the NEDA or the Secretary of Socio-economic Planning in any existing law, Executive Order, Administrative Order, or Presidential Proclamation, rules and regulations, and other issuances with respect to any duty or function assumed by the DEDP created in this Act, shall be deemed hereinafter to be referenced to the DEDP or to the Secretary of Economics and Development Planning, respectively.

Within six (6) months upon effectivity of this Act, the DEDP shall prepare the 25-year Framework. For this purpose, the amount necessary to carry out the necessary preparation of the Framework shall be provided for in the General Appropriations Act.

All programs and projects submitted to the NEDA for appraisal and those endorsed by the current Investment Coordination Committee for the approval of the NEDA Board prior to the effectivity of this Act shall be processed by the DEDP and the Economics and Development Council, respectively, subject to the prevailing laws, rules and regulations, guidelines, and issuances at the time of submission or endorsement.

1 SEC. 60. *Transfer of Rights and Obligations. – The DEDP shall, by
2 virtue of this Act, be subrogated to all the rights and assume all the obligations
3 of the NEDA, and all its liabilities that pertain to its pertinent funds and 4 appropriations, records, files, equipment, facilities, supplies, property, and 5 personnel, including unexpended portions of its members' respective salaries.

6 SEC. 61. *Separation and Retirement from Service. – The NEDA
7 employees who are separated from service as a result of the consolidation and 8 reorganization under the provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to the following 9 applicable separation incentives:

10 (a) One half (1/2) of the actual monthly basic salary for every year of 11 service, for those who have rendered less than eleven (11) years of 12 service;

13 (b) Three-fourths (3/4) of the actual monthly basic salary for every year of 14 service, computed starting from the first year, for those who have 15 rendered eleven (11) to less than twenty-one (21) years of service;

16 (c) The actual monthly basic salary for every year of service, computed 17 starting from the first year, for those who have rendered twenty-one 18 (21) to less than thirty-one (31) years of service; and 19

20 (d) One and one-fourth (1¼) of the actual monthly basic salary for every 21 year of service, computed starting from the first year, for those who 22 have rendered thirty-one (31) years of service and above.

23 The NEDA employees who opt to retire under existing retirement laws shall 24 also be entitled to the above incentives in addition to the retirement benefits to 25 which they may be entitled under applicable laws and issuances: Provided, That 26 personnel who avails of the separation incentives under this Act shall not be re-
27 employed in any agency of the executive branch for a period of five (5) years,
28 except as a teaching or medical staff in educational institutions and hospitals,
29 respectively: Provided, further, That retired or separated personnel who are re-
30 employed within the prohibited period shall refund the separation incentives 31 received on a pro-rated basis:

32 For purposes of the additional separation incentives, the actual monthly 33 basic salary shall refer to the salary of the affected personnel as of the date of 34 approval of the department's organizational structure and staffing pattern by the 35 DBM.

36 SEC. 62. *Other Benefits of Retired and Separated Personnel. – The 37 affected personnel who shall retire or are separated from the service shall, in 38 addition to the applicable benefits abovementioned, be entitled to the following:

39 (a) Refund of Pag-IBIG contributions, both personal and government,

1 pursuant to existing rules and regulations of the home development
2 mutual fund; and

3 (b) Commutation of unused vacation and sick leave credits of the affected
4 personnel in accordance with existing rules and regulations.

6 SEC. 63. Appropriations. – The amount necessary to cover the initial 7 implementation of this Act shall be charged against the current year’s 8 appropriations of the NEDA. Thereinafter, such sums as may be necessary for 9 the continued and effective implementation of this Act shall be included in the 10 annual GAA.
11

12 Such sums as may be necessary to implement the Capacity Building
13 Program of the DEDP, DEDP Research Program and DEDP Evaluation Program
14 shall also be included in the annual GAA.
15

16 SEC. 64. Implementing Rules and Regulations. – Within ninety days
17 (90) days after the effectivity of this Act, the DEDP shall promulgate the rules
18 and regulations, as well as the necessary issuances required for the proper 19 implementation of the provisions of this Act.
20

21 SEC. 65. Separability Clause. – If any provision or portion of this Act
22 is declared unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act or any provision not 23 thereby affected shall remain in full force and effect.
24

25 SEC. 66. Repealing Clause. – Executive Order No. 230, Series of 26 1987, entitled “Reorganizing the National Economic and Development
27 Authority,” and Book V, Title II, Subtitle C, entitled “The National Economic 28 and Development Authority” of Executive Order No. 292, Series of 1987,
29 otherwise known as the “Administrative Code of 1987,” are hereby repealed.
30 All other laws, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations, and other issuances, or 31 parts thereof, which are contrary or inconsistent with any provision of this 32 Act, are hereby repealed, amended, or modified accordingly.
33

34 SEC. 67. Effectivity. – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its 35 publication in the Official Gazette or in a newspaper of general circulation.

Approved.
