NINETEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 8013

Introduced by Representative DAVID "Jay-Jay" C. SUAREZ and Representative ANNA MARIE VILLARAZA- SUAREZ

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Section 17 of Article II of the 1987 Constitution establishes the State's policy of prioritizing education, science and technology, the arts, culture, and sports to promote nationalism, patriotism, social progress, and the holistic development of all individuals.

Republic Act No. 9395 transformed the Southern Luzon State University (SLSU), a renowned institution of higher learning in the Province of Quezon, from a Polytechnic College to a State University. SLSU's main campus is located in the Municipality of Lucban, Province of Quezon.

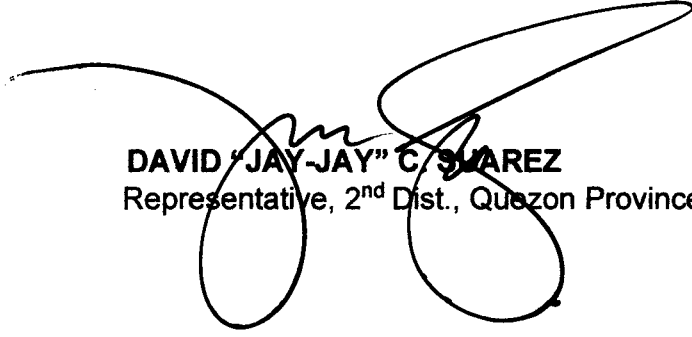

SLSU offers advanced education, professional training, and technological instructions in various fields, including allied medicine, education, engineering, agriculture, fisheries, forestry, environmental science, arts and sciences, accountancy, cooperative business, entrepreneurship, and technology. Additionally, the university conducts research, provides extension and production services, and demonstrates progressive leadership in its areas of expertise.

To expand its capacity to provide exceptional education, the SLSU has established extension campuses throughout the province, particularly in the cities of Tayabas and Lucena, as well as in the municipalities of Tiaong, Gumaca, Catanaun, Infanta, Polilio, and Alabat.

In order to sustain its commitment to high quality education, SLSU requires additional funding to meet the growing demand for higher tertiary education in the Province of Quezon. These funds will be allocated towards the constructing the necessary infrastructure, acquiring equipment, and hiring additional staff.

The bill specifically aims to convert the Southern Luzon State University- Tiaong Extension Campus into a regular campus, further enhancing the educational landscape in the Municipality of Tiaong, Province of Quezon.

In view of the foregoing circumstances, the prompt passage of this bill is imperative to enhance the quality of education in the Municipality of Tiaong, Province of Quezon.
