EXPLANATORY NOTE

This measure seeks the establishment of a Senior High School in Barangay Dulong Bayan, City of Bacor, Province of Cavite to be known as Mariano Noriel Senior High School in honor of Gen. Mariano Noriel who served as president of the Council of War during the Philippine Revolution.

A native of Bacor, Gen. Noriel played a crucial role during the revolution and the war against the Americans. To honor the contributions of Gen. Noriel to our history, this bill proposes that the said Senior High School be renamed after him.

Starting with an enrollment size of 151 in 2017, the Senior High School now caters to 641 students from 20 barangays of Bacor City. In order to strengthen the school's thrust in providing quality education by having its own identity, plantilla positions and national funding support, immediate passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
