AN ACT
AMENDING PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 1341, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE
CHARTER OF THE POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to amend Presidential Decree No. 1341, commonly recognized as the Charter of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines (PUP), with the fundamental objective of enhancing education quality and nurturing academic excellence.

This objective aligns with the guiding principles of Section 1, Article XIV of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, which states: "The State shall protect and promote the right of all citizens to quality education at all levels and shall take appropriate steps to make such education accessible to all."

Presidential Decree No. 1341 entitled "Converting the Philippine College of Commerce into a Polytechnic University, Defining its Objectives, Organizational Structure and Functions, and Expanding its Curricular Offerings" was signed into law on April 1, 1978. In light of this, the modernization of the Charter of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines becomes paramount. This will ensure that the University remains a relevant and effective institution, dedicated to providing quality education, fostering innovation, and contributing to the nation's development.

In conclusion, the proposed amendments to the Charter of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines serve as a testament to the State's commitment to advancing education, academic excellence, and the holistic development of the Filipino people. Through this bill, we aim to fortify PUP's role as a dynamic and relevant institution that effectively serves the needs of the nation.

In the 17th Congress, this bill was filed by Rep. Winnie Castelo which was primarily referred to the Committee on Higher and Technical Education.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.

AN ACT
AMENDING PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 1341, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE CHARTER OF THE POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of PD 1341 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Declaration of Policy. The Polytechnic University of the Philippines is hereby strengthened into the Country's National Polytechnic University. In order to execute its mandate, it is hereby declared as the country's First National Polytechnic University. Along with its elevated status as the country's first national polytechnic university, the University will aid support to other polytechnic state universities and colleges to raise the bar by having the former serve as the latter's guide in the development and delivery of professional and technical programs.

The University shall enjoy institutional autonomy and fiscal autonomy. It shall be treated in a manner consistent with its institutional requirements by the service-wide agencies in the exercise of their respective jurisdiction. Taking into account national goals and priorities, it shall exclusively determine its teaching, research and extensions thrust, plans, policies, programs and standards, consistent with the policies standards and guidelines promulgated by the Commission on Higher Education. On the basis of such determination, the National Polytechnic University shall recommend its annual budget to the President of the Republic of the Philippines and Congress. Appropriations for the University shall not be reduced by the legislature below the amount appropriated for the previous year and after approval shall be automatically and regularly released.

SECTION 2. Section 2 of PD 1341 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Primary Purpose. The University shall offer primarily higher occupational, technical and professional instruction and training in the fields of engineering and architecture, applied sciences, accountancy, law, education, business and management, and shall be strengthened as the country's National Polytechnic University. It shall also promote applied research, advance studies, and progressive leadership in the stated fields. As a national polytechnic university, PUP is committed in implementing programs designed to address the pressing social and economic needs by rendering services to individuals and communities and empowering citizenry for sustainable development.

SECTION 3. Section 3 of PD 1341 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Secondary Purpose. The University shall offer undergraduate and graduate programs in the field of accountancy, engineering and architecture, applied sciences, law, education, business and management. In addition, the University shall offer other programs in the polytechnic areas in light of its purpose as a national polytechnic university.

SECTION 4. Section 4 of PD 1341 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. The University Administration. The Administration of the university shall be vested in the President of the university who shall render full-time service. He shall be appointed by the Board of Regents upon the recommendation of a duly constituted search committee. He shall have a term of six (6) years without an eligibility for reappointment for another term: Provided, that this provision shall not adversely affect the terms of the incumbents, that the incumbent President shall become the first president of the university upon effectivity of this act; Provided further, that in case where no appointment was made thereafter, the incumbent President shall continue to hold the office in a hold-over capacity, such period shall in no case be more than 90 days.

The president shall be assisted by an executive vice president, vice presidents for academic affairs, administration, research, planning and development, finance, student affairs, external affairs, who shall be appointed by the Board upon the president's recommendation without prejudice to the appointment of additional vice presidents when so warranted, in case of vacancy by reason of death resignation, removal for cause or incapacity of the president to perform the functions of his office, the Board of Regent shall have the authority to designate an officer-in-charge pending the appointment of a new president. In case of vacancy in the office of the president as mentioned in the immediately preceding paragraph, his successors shall hold office for the unexpired term.

SECTION 5. Section 5 of PD 1341 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 5. Powers and Duties of the President. Specifically, the President of the University shall have the following powers and duties in addition to those normally appertaining to the Office of the President of the University:

- a. He shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the University as such, progressive and dynamic, ethical, and intellectual administrative leadership in the University is expected of him and vested in him;
- b. He shall be the head of the University Faculties and of any branch thereof;
- c. He shall have general supervision over all academic as well as business and financial operations of the University;

- d. He shall promulgate and enforce general policies affecting any unit of the University and take such actions which in his judgment are necessary for the protection of property and general interest of the University, students and personnel and for the operation of the University as a whole and shall inform the Board on all matters relating to the operation and welfare of the University;
- e. He shall appoint qualified persons to fill all vacancies and new positions subject to the approval of the Board and make such other arrangements to meet emergencies occurring between meetings of the Board so that the work of the University shall not suffer;
- f. He shall institute disciplinary action against any member of the University personnel, faculty or non-faculty as well as any student of the University whose actions adversely affect the general interest of the University.
- g. He shall decide appeals in controversies between ranking officials of the University, his decisions being final and conclusive;
- h. He shall grant or deny sabbatical leaves and leaves of absence without pay and/or extension of such leaves as well as extension of fellowships or any form of scholarship for a period not exceeding one academic year if the budget permits and for reasons he may deem satisfactory;
- i. He shall make ad-interim appointments;
- j. He shall grant or withhold permission to reveal confidential matters affecting the University or any unit thereof, as well as any action taken by the Board of Regents;
- k. He shall grant permission for the use of buildings and premises of the University for academic, professional and scientific conventions, for students and related activities and to fix the fee thereof;
- l. He is authorized to join the execution of all contracts, deeds, and instruments for the proper conduct of the business of the University and to assign the same in behalf of the University;
- m. He shall prepare an annual report on the work of the past year and needs of the current year including a budget with estimates of income and expenditures; and

- n. He shall have such other powers as may be specifically authorized by the Board of Regents. He may delegate in writing any of his specific functions to any office.

SECTION 6. Section 6 of PD 1341 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The Board of Regents. The governing body of the University shall be the Board of Regents of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines (hereinafter referred to as the Board).

1. Composition. The Board shall be composed of:
