House Bill No. 9741

Introduced by Representative ERIC GO YAP

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Kankanaey, also known Kankanay, Kankanai, and Kankana-i, refers to the culture and the people who primarily reside in Benguet and Mountain Province of the Cordillera Administrative Region (CAR). Benguet is among the primary centers of the Kankanaey population, wherein the so-called southern Kankanaey are found in the Municipalities of Mankayan, Bakun, Kibungan, Buguias, and the upper half of Kapangan in the province. These Southern Kankanaey are also called as Benguet Kankanaey who should be distinguished from the Benguet Ibaloy, the latter, being inhabitants of the lower half and the most urbanized parts of the province, including the vegetable-growing valley of La Trinidad and the melting-pot city of Baguio. Kankanaey also has their own language called Mankayan, which dialects include Bakun-Kibungan, Guinzadan, Kapangan, and Mankayan-Buguias. Evidently, Kankanaey is among the major ethnolinguistic groups in the province.

Given the dominance of Kankanaey in the province's population and as one of the major Indigenous Peoples of Benguet, it becomes of primordial importance to honor their long-standing history, culture, and tradition which shaped the Province of Benguet to what it is today. Such appreciation would only be evident through the establishment of a festival that is representative of the Kankanaey. Recently, the Kankanaey-concentrated municipalities of Benguet—Kibungan, Kapangan, Bakun, Buguias, and Mankayan—have celebrated their first Kankanaey Festival which was held last May 13, 2023. The said festival is now institutionalized as an annual celebration and recognized by the local government of the province, as a counterpart to the annual celebration of the Ibaloy Festival which is another dominant and equally significant ethnolinguistic group in the province. Hence, in honor of the said celebration, this bill seeks to declare the 13th of May of every year as a special non-working holiday in the Kankanaey-concentrated municipalities in the province, including the municipality of Bakun.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this Bill is earnestly sought.
