EXPLANATORY NOTE

The renationalization of Dra. Olivia Salamanca Memorial District Hospital is a strategic move to enhance and ensure the accessibility of healthcare services. By transferring the hospital back to the management, supervision, and control of the national government, the initiative guarantees that the facility will be properly equipped, staffed, and financed to address the health needs of communities effectively. This action aligns with the broader objectives of national healthcare policies, aiming to deliver high-quality healthcare to all citizens, thereby significantly improving public health outcomes.

This measure also emphasizes the government's commitment to public health and the provision of equitable healthcare services. It represents a commitment to a healthcare system that prioritizes the public's well-being and integrates national health policies. Through the renationalization of the hospital, the government aims to ensure that healthcare services are not only accessible but also of high quality, focusing on preventive measures and the overall improvement of community health.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this measure is earnestly sought.
