HOUSE BILL NO. 10057

Introduced by Representative Jose Manuel F. Alba

AN ACT
DECLARING MARCH 19 OF EVERY YEAR A SPECIAL NONWORKING HOLIDAY IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF TALAKAG, PROVINCE OF BUKIDNON, IN COMMEMORATION OF ITS FOUNDATION DAY ANNIVERSARY

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to declare March 19 as a special non-working holiday in the Municipality of Talakag, Province of Bukidnon, in commemoration of a significant historical event or cultural celebration.

Every year, upon the request of the Municipality Government of Talakag, the Office of the President declares March 19 a special non-working holiday to allow its people to celebrate the Municipality's Foundation Day.

Recognizing the importance of preserving and promoting local heritage, traditions, and community identity, this bill aims to honor the legacy of the Municipality and to provide residents of Talakag the opportunity to commemorate and celebrate this occasion with appropriate ceremonies, activities, and observances.

By declaring March 19 as a special non-working holiday, the bill also aims to promote tourism, cultural appreciation, and community cohesion within the Municipality of Talakag, thereby contributing to the overall development and well-being of its residents.

It is hoped that the enactment of this bill will serve as a means of fostering pride, unity, and solidarity among the people of Talakag, while also providing an opportunity for visitors and guests to experience and participate in the rich cultural heritage of the municipality.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought for the benefit and welfare of the constituents of Talakag, Bukidnon
