

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

NINETEENTH CONGRESS
Third Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 10974

Introduced by Representative Ma. Rene Ann Lourdes G. Matibag

EXPLANATORY NOTE

San Isidro Labrador is the patron saint of Sitio Bayan-bayanan, part of Brgy San Vicente, the second biggest barangay in the locality of San Pedro, Laguna. Sitio Bayan-bayanan, is situated in the so called Upper Villages or in the mountainous part of San Pedro and surrounded by Barangay Sampaguita, United Better Living, Estrella, Langgam and San Antonio.

In July 11, 2015, the Brgy San Vicente residents voted in a plebiscite to subdivide their barangay into 8 distinct barangays but Sitio Bayan-bayanan was never considered to be separated from San Vicente.

Apparently, the population of Sitio Bayan-bayanan did not meet the requirement for it to be a full blown barangay. Likewise, its earnings was not sufficient to be able to support the needs of its own constituents way back in 2015.

Today, Sitio Bayan-bayanan is a more progressive area with a continuously increasing population and more businesses setting up within the area. There is an elementary school, a private high school, a small wet market, several places of worship including the church of its patron saint, San Isidro Labrador, and a some convenience stores. Needless to say, Sitio Bayan-bayanan is now at par with some of the barangays within its vicinity and is ready to become Barangay San Isidro.

In accordance with the Constitution, this bill seeks to establish Barangay San Isidro in the City of San Pedro, Laguna and entitles the political unit a fair share to the national internal revenue allotment, subject to the applicable provisions of the Local Government Code, as amended.

In view of the foregoing, I pray that this bill be approved and ratified at the soonest possible time.

MA. RENE ANN ESURDES G. MATIBAG
