AN ACT STANDARDIZING THE SALARIES AND BENEFITS OF BARANGAY OFFICIALS, AMENDING SECTION 393(N) OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 7160, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT CODE OF 1991

Our barangays are the closest levels of government for all Filipinos in our country. In every program of the Government, from public health, education, disaster relief, and everything in between, our barangay officials are tasked to reach out to our homes and provide us with all the necessary information and assistance.

Section 384, Chapter 1, Title 1, Book III of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of 1991, states that the Barangay, as the basic political unit, "serves as the primary planning and implementing unit of government policies, plans, programs, projects, and activities in the community, and as a forum wherein the collective views of the people may be expressed, crystallized, and considered, and where disputes may be amicably settled."

Given that barangays are in the front lines of government service, its officials are often expected to function beyond normal working hours and perform an extensive range of crucial roles, responsibilities, and duties in and for the government. Despite all these, they are not entitled to compensation accorded to regular government workers.

Their contribution to nation-building cannot be discounted. All government programs concerning our people necessarily pass through the barangays. It is thus long overdue that their benefits be defined and established by legislation.

Thus, this bill proposes to provide elected barangay officials and appointed barangay personnel monthly salaries commensurate to their tasks, responsibilities, and duties similar to those given to regular employees in government.

In view of this, early passage of this bill is sought.
