TWENTIETH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 1230

Introduced by Honorable Jefferson F. Khonghun

EXPLANATORY NOTE

During the Seventeenth Congress, Representatives Rodolfo C. Farnias, Pantaleon D. Alvarez, Rolando G. Andaya, JR., Michael John R. Duavit, Carlos O. Cojuanco, Elisa T. Kho, Raneo E. Abu, Benhur L. Salimbangon, Kalro Alexei B. Nograles, Danilo E. Suarez and Rodel M. Batocabe filed House Bill No. 152, seeking “to protect the ordinary Filipino, the “un-vehicled” urban poor who merely rely on public transport in the course of earning their living. These people are the pedestrians, the daily commuters, transport-based earners and innocent bystanders who are exposed to hazards of reckless driving perpetrated by driver(s) of private motor vehicle(s) as well as public transport systems.” Unfortunately, this did not pass into law.

The apparent flaw in our legal system stays undisturbed, and more often that not the outcome of a civil or criminal proceeding of such nature remains to be an empty victory for the aggrieved party. It remains discretionary, not mandatory for the court to hold the vehicle in custodia legis, or require the owner or operator of the vehicle to post a cash bond. Re-submitting this measure is important to correct this practice.

This proposed measure will not make it mandatory for the courts to hold the subject vehicle as it will render the vehicle useless overtime. Instead, what will be mandatory is to post a cash bond, not surety bond, while the trial is pending to ensure satisfaction of any award for damages.

Therefore, the passage of this bill is therefore earnestly sought.
