TWENTIETH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1594

Introduced by Representative MARLYN L. PRIMICIAS-AGABAS

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippines is considered a mega-diverse country which means that it is very rich in terms of biodiversity. We also have world famous species like the Philippine Eagle, the Tamaraw and the Philippine Tarsier.

According to the Biodiversity Management Bureau, the Philippines has about 133 terrestrial mammals, 230 birds, 244 reptiles and 97 amphibian species occurring nowhere else in the world. We also have over 120 fishes that can be found only in Philippine inland and marine waters.

However, there is still a continuing threat to our wildlife due to exploitation, habitat degradation, pollution, climate change, and the illegal wildlife trade. If we do not address these problems, many of the species in our country will become extinct.

Republic Act No. 9147, or the "Wildlife Resources Conservation and Protection Act" was passed in 2001. Its main objectives include wildlife resource conservation and biodiversity protection.

There is now a need to improve and strengthen this law to meet the demands and problems we have today. This will ensure that our environment will be protected not only for us but for future generations as well. Anchored on the constitutional mandate under Article II, Section 16 of the 1987 Constitution which states that "The State shall protect and advance the right of the people to a balanced and healthful ecology in accord with the rhythm and harmony of nature," this bill aims to secure the country's remaining wildlife heritage for future generations. With the rapid decline of biodiversity and increasing threats to ecological stability, the need to modernize our wildlife law is urgent, necessary, and long overdue.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
