First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL No. 1864

Introduced by: HONORABLE ROSEMARIE CONEJOS PANOTES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The granting of Assistance to Individuals in Crisis Situation (AICS) has been a part of the Department of Social Welfare and Development's (DSWD) protective services program for the poor, marginalized and vulnerable or disadvantaged individuals as part of its technical assistance and resource augmentation support to local government units and other partners. In the few decades of the existence of the program, it has already benefited hundreds of thousands of poor people, especially in the far-flung areas.

As the centrepiece of the Protective Service Program, the DSWD extends financial and/or material assistance by providing monetary support in the form of outright cash and/or guarantee letter to service providers to augment the resources of the target beneficiaries, which include, but not limited to, transportation assistance, medical assistance, burial assistance, and educational assistance.

The type and amount of financial assistance provided to target beneficiaries are based on the assessment and recommendation of the social workers and/authorized personnel, duly approved by the authorized official or officials of the DSWD.

Due to the immense success of the Program in alleviating the plight of the vulnerable and disadvantaged individuals, there is a need to make this permanent that whoever will govern the country, the granting of AICS will continue so that the marginalized individuals and families needing immediate intervention may have access to basic services from the government.

This bill, the only bill with only one author, my late mother Congresswoman Toots Panotes, during the Eighteenth Congress, was found to be meritorious as this was approved with amendments by the Committee on Social Services but the Committee Report did not reach the plenary. Again, during the Nineteenth Congress, the same bill was approved on Third Reading but due to lack of material time it was not transmitted to the Senate.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the immediate approval of this important piece of legislation is earnestly sought.
