HOUSE BILL NO. 3005

INTRODUCED BY CONGRESSMAN STEVE CHIONGBIAN SOLON

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This is a refiled bill. The House of Representatives (19th Congress) passed this measure under 3rd Reading and transmitted the same to the Senate on February 4, 2025.

The Sangguniang Panlalawigan of Sarangani Province enacted Provincial Ordinance No. 2009-6-044 creating Barangay New Canaan as a separate and distinct barangay of the Municipality of Alabel, the capital town. Its creation is an answer to the long-time demand of the people of New Canaan to be a self-reliant and empowered community being situated in the hinterland.

The creation, however, entails that the Provincial Government of Sarangani provides for financial subsidies to run its operations as a separate barangay. The annual budget of the provincial government has a limited allocation to the total budgetary requirements of Barangay New Canaan.

It is the intent, therefore, of this bill that Congress enacts law for the creation of Barangay New Canaan so that it can avail the National Tax Allotment (NTA), formerly called Internal Revenue Allotment (IRA), released yearly by the Department of Budget and Management (DBM), to propel genuine autonomy and community development.

Approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
