House Bill No. 3265

Introduced by HON. JOSEFINA B. TALLADO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to create additional branches of Regional Trial Court in the Province of Camarines Norte to be stationed in the in the municipality of Labo, Camarines Norte.

The province of Camarines Norte has 12 municipalities with a total population of 583,313 based on population data for 2015 conducted by the Philippine Statistics Authority.

Presently, there are only five (5) RTC Branches in the province with a total of 2,683 pending civil and criminal cases as of 2016 alone.

RTC Branch 38, 39, 40 and 41 are all stationed in Daet, Camarines Norte which are all in the 2nd District of Camarines Norte. On the other hand RTC Branch 64 is stationed in Labo, Camarines Norte, which is part of the 1st District of Camarines Norte.

Large number of cases are added every year which makes it imperative to add a Regional Trial Court in the province. More importantly, it is significant to note that there is only one (1) Regional Trial Court in the 1st District which consists of five municipalities, namely Capalonga, Jose Panganiban, Labo, Paracale and Sta. Elena with a total population of 292,871 as of 2015 census..

The travelling distance from Sta. Elena, Capalonga, Jose Panganiban and Paracale to Labo is almost two (2) hours. Another two (2) hours will be added if cases are heard in Daet.

This proposed bill is filed to address this particular concern of making the court more accessible and allow for a speedy disposition of justice.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
