HOUSE BILL NO. 4951

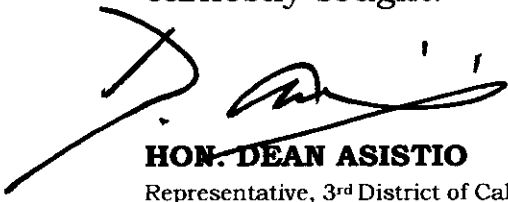

Introduced by: REPRESENTATIVES DEAN ASISTIO and OSCAR G. MALAPITAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This proposed bill seeks to address the growing needs and demands of the residents of Barangay 178 in the Third District of Caloocan City by advocating for its division into four distinct and independent barangays, namely: Barangay 178-A, Barangay 178-B, Barangay 178-C, and Barangay 178-D.

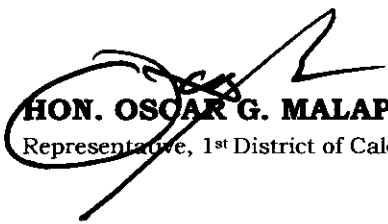

Based on the Caloocan City Planning and Development Department's 2025 Demographic Profile Estimation in Zone 16 - Third District of Caloocan City, Barangay 178 has an estimated population of 115,847 and spans a vast land area of approximately 189.11 hectares; covering seven sitios. Over the years, the sheer size and density of the barangay have made it increasingly difficult to ensure the efficient and equitable delivery of basic services to all its constituents. The division of the barangay is therefore not merely a bureaucratic measure but a strategic response to improve public service delivery, enhance local governance, and ensure that each community receives the attention and support it rightfully deserves.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

HON. DEAN ASISTIO

Representative, 3rd District of Caloocan City

HON. OSCAR G. MALAPITAN

Representative, 1st District of Caloocan City
