House Bill No. 6250

AN ACT
ESTABLISHING A VOUCHER SYSTEM FOR POOR AND ACADEMICALLY
QUALIFIED STUDENTS OF PRIVATE HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS
AND PRIVATE TECHNICAL-VOCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE REPUBLIC ACT NO. 10931, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE “UNIVERSAL ACCESS TO QUALITY TERTIARY EDUCATION ACT”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 10931, otherwise known as the “Universal Access to Quality Tertiary Education Act,” was enacted to democratize access to higher education by providing free tuition and other school fees in State Universities and Colleges (SUCs), Local Universities and Colleges (LUCs), and public Technical-Vocational Institutions (TVIs). While the law has greatly benefited students enrolled in public institutions, it remains limited in its ability to assist poor and academically qualified students who, due to geographic, institutional, or program availability constraints, choose to pursue their tertiary education in private institutions.

This proposed measure seeks to address that gap by establishing a voucher system for students who are economically disadvantaged yet academically capable and who choose to study in private Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) and private TVIs in cities and municipalities where public tertiary education options already exist. Through the issuance of portable vouchers, this bill aims to support students whose educational aspirations may otherwise be constrained by the lack of available or comparable degree programs in public institutions.

The measure proposes amendments to Sections 3 and 7 of RA No. 10931 and introduces a new Section 7A. These provisions define key terms and mandate a proportional budgetary allocation to fund the vouchers. The vouchers will be administered by the Unified Student Financial Assistance System for Tertiary Education (UniFAST) and will be exclusively granted to eligible students not later than the start of the academic year, or in the case of TVI students, prior to the start of the specific training program or course.

Furthermore, to ensure responsiveness to prevailing economic conditions, the bill requires the UniFAST Board to determine the appropriate tuition and miscellaneous fees covered by the voucher through a commissioned study. The fees shall be reviewed every three years to account for inflationary changes.

By creating an equitable mechanism that extends state support to deserving students enrolled in private institutions, this measure complements and strengthens the objectives of RA No. 10931. It also reflects the State's continuing commitment to inclusive, accessible, and quality tertiary education for all Filipinos, especially the underserved sectors of society.

This bill was approved on Third and Final Reading during the 19th Congress. In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
