HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TWENTIETH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 6364

Introduced by:

HON. CHRISTOPHERSON "COCO" M. YAP

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 9520, or the Philippine Cooperative Code of 2008, affirms the indispensable role of cooperatives in national development and provides the legal framework governing their formation, organization, and operations. However, the evolving economic landscape and the changing social conditions affecting the cooperative sector necessitate a comprehensive review and enhancement of the law.

This measure seeks to strengthen the cooperative system by introducing substantive amendments to RA 9520. Among its key provisions are: (1) extending tax exemptions to duly registered cooperatives engaging in transactions with both members and non-members; (2) ensuring that transactions between cooperatives and their members remain free from taxes, fees, and charges; (3) expanding the allowable uses of the reserve fund to promote cooperative stability and community development; and (4) establishing an optional fund to support cooperative members in exceptional circumstances.

By advancing these reforms, the measure reinforces the cooperative movement as a vital instrument of social empowerment, nation-building, and democratic governance.

In the Nineteenth Congress, the House of Representatives approved a similar measure on Third Reading as House Bill No. 9673 on December 12, 2023.

In view of the foregoing, ug sa ngalan sa SERBISYONG TINUORAY, the undersigned respectfully requests the immediate passage of this measure.
